

EIGHT FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

Home Banking and Access to the Voice Audio Line (VAL)

Online internet banking is now available to all members of the Eight Federal Credit Union. By using this service, a member can view balances, transfer funds between accounts (within the same account number), and see transaction history. Members can also receive account statements electronically. This means that you can receive your statement promptly at the end of the statement period. This feature will also help defer the cost of statement preparation and postage allowing Eight Federal Credit Union to pass these savings on to its members in the form of low fees and good rates. At your convenience you can view transactions and verify cleared checks on a daily basis.

You must be signed up and entered into the database to use this free service. If you would like to participate in this service, the primary member of the account must complete the form at the bottom of this page and return it to the credit union office. Simply go to our website at www.eightfederalcu.org and click on the online services link located on the left hand side of the page. You will be prompted to enter your four digit account number and password. Call the credit union at 419-666-7334 to obtain your temporary password. You will then be prompted to change your password. Please be sure to choose a password that will be easily remembered as the credit union does not have access to your password.

Call a credit union Member Service Representative for any addition questions regarding home banking. It is imperative that we are informed immediately if your email address has been changed. Print this form to sign up for eStatements. Mail, fax or drop of the form to your credit union. A password will be mailed to you.
